

iSearch Paper Rubric

1. Citation
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use citations to show borrowed words or ideas.
2. Evidence
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use enough good evidence to develop your topic.
3. Questioning
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use strong, open-ended research questions.
4. Gathering Information
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use information from more than one source.
5. Conventions
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use pronouns to replace nouns.• Use punctuation to offset clauses and phrases.

Power Standard	DOK 4 4-5 pts.	DOK 3 3 pts.	DOK 2 2 pts.	DOK 1 1 pt.
Citation (RL.9-10.1)	Use correct in-text and parenthetical citations.	Use general citations to identify borrowed words or ideas.	Experiment with citation styles to identify borrowed words or ideas.	Use quotation marks to identify borrowed words or phrases.
Evidence (W.9-10.2)	Develop your topic with well-chosen, relevant, and sufficient facts or other information.	Use clear, relevant information to support your topic.	Use facts or other information which relates to your topic.	Identify an example of information which could relate to your topic.
Questioning (W.9-10.7)	Evaluate your own open-ended questions, broadening or narrowing where appropriate.	Design your own open-ended research questions.	Model your own open-ended questions after examples given in class.	Distinguish between open-ended and closed-ended questions.
Gathering Information (W.9-10.8)	Gather and assess the usefulness of relevant information from live, digital, and print sources.	Gather relevant information from multiple types of sources.	Locate information that relates to your topic in a digital or print source.	identify possible sources of information.
Conventions (L.9-10.1)	Use appropriate pronouns to enhance writing. Place clauses and phrases, using appropriate modifiers, to create style, voice, and tone.	Use appropriate pronouns to avoid redundancy. Use punctuation and modifiers to offset clauses and phrases.	Use pronouns to replace nouns. Use punctuation to offset clauses and phrases.	Distinguish between nouns and pronouns. Describe how punctuation can offset sentence elements.