

Writing on Demand Rubric 3

“Why being a thinker means pocketing your smartphone”

1. Citation
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use citations to show borrowed words or ideas.
2. Evidence
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use enough good evidence to develop your topic.
3. Conventions
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use paralell structure

Power Standard	DOK 4 4-5 pts.	DOK 3 3 pts.	DOK 2 2 pts.	DOK 1 1 pt.
Citation (RL.9-10.1)	Use correct in-text and parenthetical citations.	Use general citations to identify borrowed words or ideas.	Experiment with citation styles to identify borrowed words or ideas.	Use quotation marks to identify borrowed words or phrases.
Evidence (W.9-10.2)	Develop your topic with well-chosen, relevant, and sufficient facts or oter information.	Use clear, relevant information to support your topic.	Use facts or other information which relates to your topic.	Identify an example of information which could relate to your topic.
Conventions (L.9-10.1.a)	Use correct paralell structure with both ordered lists and tense.	Use lists and tense, recognizing and correcting shifts in paralell structure.	Correct paralell structure in examples provided to you.	Identify examples and non examples of paralell structure.